SECTION 1: OVERVIEW & HISTORY

The Institute of Business Administration (IBA), Karachi, is a public, non-profit, autonomous degree-awarding university owned by the Government of Sindh, Pakistan. It is one of the oldest and most prestigious business schools in Pakistan and is widely regarded as the oldest business school outside of North America.

Source: Wikipedia — Institute of Business Administration, Karachi; IBA Official About Page (iba.edu.pk)

IBA was founded in 1955 with the support of the University of Southern California's Graduate School of Business Administration and through a collaborative arrangement between the Government of Pakistan and the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). Curriculum development was entrusted to eminent American scholars. Technical assistance was also received from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.

SECTION 14: FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE & SCHOLARSHIPS

The Office of Student Financial Assistance (OSFA) at IBA Karachi is dedicated to removing financial barriers for full-time morning program students. IBA offers a wide range of financial assistance programs, from fee installments to full financial assistance.

Source: IBA Official Financial Assistance Page (iba.edu.pk/financialassistance)

Merit Scholarships: IBA awards merit-based scholarships to the top ten candidates in the IBA Aptitude Test, granting them a 50% fee concession on tuition fees throughout the entire duration of their degree program.

Source: VStudents.org — IBA Karachi Admissions Guide; IBA Scholarship Page (iba.edu.pk/scholarships.php)

Need-Based Financial Assistance: IBA's need-based scholarship program is funded through Zakat funds and contributions from public and private sector donors. Upon submission of a need-based scholarship form, IBA provides bridge financing until the applicant is connected with a donor or Zakat funds. Bridge financing ranges from 25% to 90% of applicable tuition fees and is determined by the IBA Financial Assistance Committee (FAC).

Source: IBA Official Need-Based Financial Assistance Page (iba.edu.pk/financialassistance/needbased.php)

Only full-time students enrolled in morning programs who face genuine financial constraints and are unable to pay fees through other options such as fee installments and Qarz-e-Hasna (interest-free loans) may apply for need-based scholarships.

Source: IBA Official Need-Based Financial Assistance Page (iba.edu.pk/financialassistance/needbased.php)

To maintain financial assistance, students must achieve a minimum CGPA of 2.5. If CGPA falls below 2.5 after the Fall semester, financial assistance will not continue for the Spring semester.

Source: IBA Official Need-Based Financial Assistance Page (iba.edu.pk/financialassistance/needbased.php)

Graduate students receiving financial assistance must maintain a full course load throughout their studies. Freezing or deferring any semester is not permitted for students on financial assistance. Financial assistance for graduate students is provided for the duration of the program as specified in the official program announcement; this does not apply to the EMBA and MSJ programs.

Financial assistance applications must be submitted within specified dates. Late applications are not considered. Applicants must submit income tax returns for all earning family members (except residents of Gilgit-Baltistan, a tax-exempt region). The FAC may conduct personal visits to verify information provided.
